

Optimal Aging Conference

2019

AGING INSPIRED. *inspire. innovate. impact.
investigate. integrate.*

June
9-11

Louisville, KY
The Brown Hotel

Call for Presentations

The Optimal Aging Conference unites healthcare and social service professionals, industry members, academics, older adults, and caregivers who view aging as an opportunity.

We welcome you to join us in Louisville, KY to share inspirational ideas and stories about how we can inspire, innovate, impact, investigate, and integrate the aging experience. This interdisciplinary conference invites presentations on academic research, practical applications, technological advances, personal testimonies, and more.

We have opportunities for 90-minute, 60-minute and poster presentations across several tracks. Presentation proposals are due March 15.
