

Optimal Aging Conference Awards & Recognition

The University of Louisville Trager Institute and Kentucky Association for Gerontology (KAG) are pleased to announce its 2020 Optimal Aging Conference Awards and Recognition Program.

The program seeks to: a) recognize the excellence of the personal efforts of individuals working in the fields of gerontology and geriatrics; and b) bring increased public and professional attention to and interest in gerontology and geriatrics across the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

There are four different types of awards for which individuals can be nominated:

- The Lois E. Layne Award (for student achievement)
- The Thoroughbred Award (for exceptional advocacy for seniors)
- The Distinguished Achievement Award (Educator Category)
- The Distinguished Achievement Award for practitioners (Practitioner Category)
